

Citizen Corps in the Lead

Google doesn't lie: Carnation-Duvall Citizen Corps is the only Citizen Corps in the land ever to lead a parade as Grand Marshals.

It happened in the Carnation WA 2009 Fourth of July Parade.

Leading the parade were 25 Community Emergency Response Team members, 15 Medical Reserve Corps members, and 10 Snoqualmie Valley Amateur Radio Club members; 50 members of Carnation-Duvall Citizen Corps.

Why the Grand Marshals honor? Citizen Corps President Kathy Brasch said, “The City of Carnation and the parade committee wanted to recognize the volunteers who delivered shelter information to the community in 2007, turned out to sandbag during the floods of 2008, and set up a practice shelter during the Wildfire Evacuation Drill in 2009.”
